

Suzanne Pillans Ministry Hands of Hope Orphanage, Zambia Update November 2010

Some of the hungry & needy orphans who were gathered up by Suzanne one year ago.

A typical African Rondo where the orphans sleep at night.

Pastor Kelvin Shinga oversees the Orphanage.

Each day the children line up to be fed.

Volunteer teachers also help in the feeding program for the orphans.

School being taught by volunteer teachers outside.

Volunteers from the area hand-made the bricks for the School Building.

School building nearly completed, this was funded by a donor from England.

Excited orphans receiving school books, crayons, pencils, etc from a donor in NZ.

After receiving daily food and care for one year, it is easy to see that the orphans have improved physically. They are receiving schooling everyday and on Sundays attend Church and learn about God.
